Hurrah for Cooper's Warehouse and Wayne County Tobacco. A few weeks ago the GOLD LEAF noted tobacco at Cooper's warehouse. For first and that was thought to be doing well for a county that had not long been growing lowing prices: $23.50, $26, $35, $35, $40, $45, $59.50, $96, an average of $43.67. That is hard to beat, ain't it? and certainly a long way ahead of cotton. Mr. H. G. Phelps, of the same place sold seven lots at $22, $24,50 $28, $30, $36, $45, $68.
